Budgeting your event(s)

Eventdrive has created a system that allows you to follow your event spendings and revenues with ease from our all-in-one platform. You are also able to communicate the progress of your event(s) budget with the ones involved.

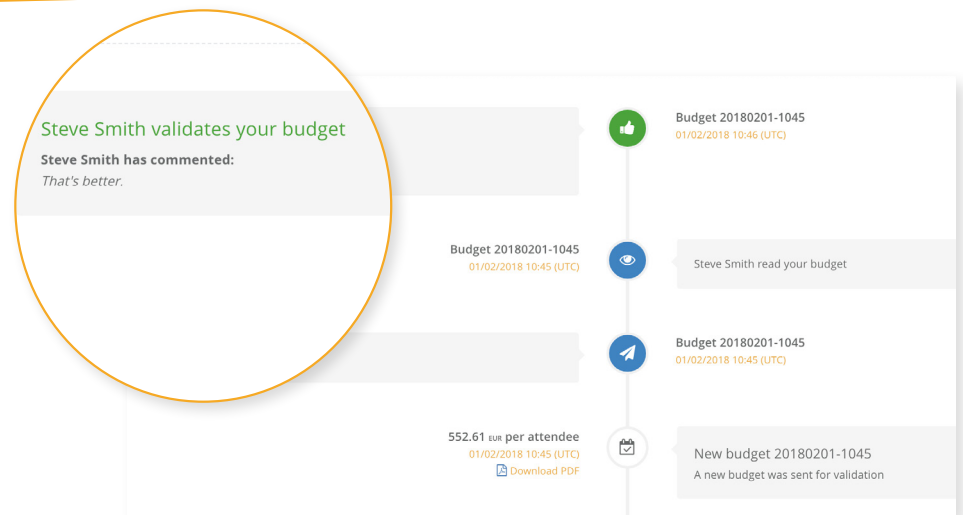

Manage your budget for all your events by maintaining control over your expenses and revenues throughout the planning of your event:

- Manage suppliers and partners contact information in one place
- Create your own categories: per suppliers, per attendees, per industries etc.
- Forecast and validate the expenses tied with your events & share the info with decision-makers
- Follow your payments & invoices and get notified on upcoming supplier deadlines
- Share a full report with your team or anyone within your company
- Learn & improve your expertise in organizing events
